COUNCILORS TO DEBATE BUDGET FIGURES TODAY

Further work on the college budget and reports promise to take the limelight at today's Student Council meeting. If usual procedure is followed at the meet, it will be lively, however.

Councilman Sebastian "Scrap" Squatrito should have some of the budget totaling completed. When all of the individual estimates given to the councilors by the various departments and organizations on campus have been compiled and discussed, the body will make its recommendations on next year's budget needs.

Bond drive chairman Howard Riddle will make a report on progress made by his committee and Recognition day co-chairmen Mary Lou Montgomery and Wilma Sableman will give reports on their plans.

ORGANIZATIONS PREPARE FOR FIFTH WAR BOND DRIVE STARTING JUNE 9

Campus organizations scheduled to take part in the Fifth War Bond drive, June 9-16, may go ahead and make plans for their day's activities, states Howard Riddle, chairman of the campaign.

At a meeting of day business managers held Thursday afternoon, Henry Marchesio of the Bank of America explained methods of handling the sales of war bonds and stamps.

Each of the six days of the campaign to put San Jose State college over the top again will be undertaken by two campus groups. Each set may plan their own day's activities in any way they may wish, says chairman Riddle.

MEETING

Another meeting of business managers will be held on Thursday, June 8, the day preceding the opening of the drive. Before the meeting, day chairmen should report to chairman Riddle about the plans for their respective campaigns.

Ero Sophian and Kappa Kappa Sigma will have charge of the first day of the campaign on Washington Square, Friday, June 9. Monday, June 12, will be given to Delta Beta Sigma and Beta Chi. The other days of the drive

THETA MU MEETS SLUGGERS TODAY

Baseball fans with time to kill this afternoon will be well rewarded for the effort of walking out to the San Carlos turf at 4 o'clock for what is expected to be the best game of the current softball series, when Theta Mu Sigma meets the Eleventh Street Sluggers.

Although one of the main features of the game will be the pitcher's duel between Rex Maddy of Theta Mu and Jim Cassingham of the Sluggers, both teams have sufficient hitting strength to keep the game interesting.

On Wednesday, the Spartan Daily and Avalon squads, refreshed after the holiday, promise to provide spectators with a true slugfest. Chucking for the Avalons will be either Red Freeman or Vance Snyder, while Ed "Bloomer Boy" Loudon will do the chores for the Longhairs.

Electioneering

Hold your hats, everybody! Here we go again! Another election, another pep-talk — every time, the same thing. Old things are best and election pep-talks have stood the test of time, so it would be sacrilege to ignore this opportunity.

Seriously, choosing student body officers is an important duty and privilege, and one not to be lightly overlooked. The students elected at this time will influence the future policies of the college and, therefore, should be carefully selected.

Th candidates running are of particularly fine calibre and it would be unfair to them and to next year's Spartans not to consider the choice seriously and, above all, to vote!
